9. Disclosures of your personal data

- 9.1. In the course of the performance of our contractual and statutory obligations your personal data may be provided within our various departments. Various service providers and suppliers (sub-processors) may also receive your personal data so that we may perform our obligations. Such service providers and suppliers enter into contractual agreements with us by which they observe confidentiality and data protection according to the data protection law and GDPR. The list of these sub-processors can be found on our website at <https://www.jcc.com.cy/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/JCC-sub-processors-EN-010720.pdf>.
- 9.2. It must be noted that we may disclose data about you for any of the reasons set out hereinabove, or if we are legally required to do so, or if we are authorized under our contractual and statutory obligations or if you have given your consent. All data processors appointed by us to process personal data on our behalf are bound by contract to comply with the GDPR provisions.
- 9.3. Under the circumstances referred to above, recipients of your Personal Data may be, for example:
- Supervisory and other regulatory and public authorities, in as much as a statutory obligation exists. Some examples are the Central Bank of Cyprus, the European Central Bank, the VAT and the income tax authorities, criminal prosecution authorities,
 - External legal consultants,
 - Auditors and accountants,
 - Marketing operations,
 - International Card Schemes such Visa, MasterCard, Diners, etc.,
 - Fraud prevention agencies,
 - File storage companies, archiving and/or records management companies, cloud storage companies,
 - Companies who assist us with the effective provision of our services to you by offering technological expertise, solutions and support and facilitating loyalty transactions.

10. Transfer of your personal data to a third country or to an international organisation

- 10.1. Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:
- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission. For further details, see European Commission: Adequacy of the protection of personal data in non-EU countries.
 - Where we use certain service providers, we may use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe. For further details, see European Commission: Model contracts for the transfer of personal data to third countries.

10.2. Please contact us if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the EEA.

11. To what extent there is automated decision-making and whether profiling takes place

11.1. In establishing and carrying out a business relationship, we generally do not use any automated decision-making. We may process some of your data automatically, with the goal of assessing certain personal aspects (profiling), in order to be registered and start using the myLoyalty.

12. Cookies and other identifiers

12.1. Cookies are small text files that are automatically stored or read out from the visitor's device (including a PC, tablet or smartphone) whenever you visit a website. The information obtained by a cookie regarding your use of our portals, your IP address or the identification of the device you use, can be transferred to a secure server in use by us or a third party.

12.2. In general, this information is collected and analysed for the following purposes:

- to generate general statistics and to obtain information on our clients' usage of our portals and to improve the user-friendliness of the portals (analytics cookies); and
- to enable functionalities of the portals (functionally required cookies).

12.3. For the abovementioned purposes we have concluded a data processing agreement with Google to make use of Google Analytics to collect information on how you navigate on our applications. At the same time, we have implemented other measures to safeguard your privacy, for instance, we have de-activated the standard setting in Google Analytics for sharing your personal data with Google.

13. Data Retention

13.1. By law we have to keep basic information about our customers (including Contact, Identity, Financial and Transaction Data) for 10 years after they cease being customers for tax purposes.

13.2. In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see Your data protection legal rights below for further information.

13.3. In some circumstances we will anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

14. Your data protection rights

14.1. You have the following rights in terms of your personal data we hold about you:

- Receive access to your personal data. This enables you to e.g. receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it. In order to receive such a copy you can contact us at the email: dpo@icc.com.cy.

- Request correction [rectification] of the personal data we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to erase your personal data [known as the 'right to be forgotten'] where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it.
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest and there is something about your situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. If you lodge an objection, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms.
- You also have the right to object to where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. This also includes profiling in as much as it is related to direct marketing. Please note that we will do so only if you have provided your consent. If you object to us processing your data for direct marketing purposes, then we shall stop the processing of your personal data for such purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal data if:
 - it is not accurate,
 - it has been used unlawfully but you do not wish for us to delete it,
 - it is not relevant anymore, but you want us to keep it for use in possible legal claims,
 - you have already asked us to stop using your personal data, but you are waiting us to confirm if we have legitimate grounds to use your data.
- Request to receive a copy of the personal data concerning you in a format that is structured and commonly used and transmit such data to other organisations. You also have the right to have your personal data transmitted directly by ourselves to other organisations you will name [known as the right to data portability].
- Withdraw the consent that you gave us with regard to the processing of your personal data at any time. Note that any withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before it was withdrawn or revoked by you.

14.2. To exercise any of your rights, or if you have any other questions about our use of your personal data, please contact our Data Protection Officer at the email: dpo@jcc.com.cy. We endeavour to address all of your requests promptly.
